Simpson today issued the following or-direct police officers to notice as closely as possible the landing of excursions at our wharves in the night time and wherever a landing is made where the facilities for reaching the streets are unsafe the captain or officer or officers directing such landing shall be arrested and brought to the station house."

This action was deemed necessary by the Mayor to protect excursionists who reach this city at night on steamers that land them sometimes on wharves that are closed to the public and against he protests of the wharf owners. In this folk and Washington Steamboat Com-pany have recently, at considerable ex-pense, improved their wharf at the foot of Prince street for their own use ex-clusively and have directed that excur-bers of Fuzgerald Council, Kuights of Columbus, met last night at the Catholic Lyceum, and determined that the council should be formally organized on Sunday, the 15th of July, in one of the larger halls of the city. It is expected that on that occasion councils of the Columbian Knights from Richmond, Norfolk, Petersburg, and Washington will visit Alexandria and attend the initiation and organization, which will be-gin in the morning and will not be concluded until about sunset.

are no vacancies, however. The water mains will be flushed on Thursday evening.

PERSONAL,-Miss Mollie Bachellor. of Richmond, is visiting friends in Alex andria and Washington.

Among the "eason's guests at Wood-ley Inn, near Washington, are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Murdaugh, of this city. Mr. B. Baer is convalencing so favor-ably from an attack of typhoid fever at his home in Washington, that in a short time he will be well enough to go to the mountaine.

The private school scholarship given by the University of Virginia, was won by R. D. Micou of the Episcopal High School, near this city.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett and her daughters. Miss Lila Waller Barrett and Miss Reba Barrett, will leave here tomorrow for New York, whence they will sail for Europe

Miss Roberta Harper and Mr. Richard Wise, of Lees urg, are visiting the family of Mr. J. Sidney Douglas.

Mr. Courtney Houck is visiting his parents on south Fairfax street.

Miss Cora Connors, of upper Prince street, who has been visiting relatives at Linden, Va., has returned home. Miss Josephine Parsells, of Washing. ton, is visiting Miss Daisy Williams on north St. Asaph street.

Mr. Benoni Wheat continues quite sick at his home on Duke street though his condition to today is thought to have slightly improved.

Mr. James T. Close, formerly of Alexandria county, but now of Upper San-dusky, Ohio, with his on, Mr. Charles F. Close, are guests of Treasurer Wibirt, of the county. Young Mr. Close has recently been appointed by Congressman No ton of the Thirteenth Ohio district a cadet to the Naval Academy at Amapolis and is on his way to that city to enter the academy. The Sandusky papers speak in most complimen ary terms of Mr. Close.

OFFICERS QUALIFIED .-- At 12 o'clock today Mr. M. B. Harlow, who has been City Treasurer for the past twenty-four years, formally turned over the office to Mr. T. W. Robinson, who was elected to the position last May. Mr Harlow and his deputies, Messre. D. J. Nor-moyle and E. J. Fleming, and Mr. George H. Robinson, deputy of the incoming Treasurer, met by appointment at the hour named above when the formal transfer was made. Mr. Harlow and his assistants offered the officers any assistance they might desire in their new duties, and the profler was received with due appreciation. Mr. Robinson is a son of the late George H. Robinson, and he has been reared to a commercial life. During Mr. Cleveland's second administration he was Collector of the Port of Alexandria. That the affairs of the City Treasurer's office will be conducted to the entire satisfaction of all is assured. Mr. Harlow, who for nearly a quarter of a century has been n charge of the office, bas been faithful to his trust and during his incumbency as labored earnestly for the welfare of the city. When he entered the office there was comparatively little money in the treasury. Today he turned over $20,929.86 to the general fund, $878.25 to the gas fund, and $2,214.77 to the sinking fund, making a total of $24,- Messrs. Normoyle and Fleming, whose courteous bearing and attention to business while connected with the reasurer's office have won them many friends, will for the present be connect ed with Mr. Harlow in his business in his city. Mr. Normoyle will soon, however, commence the practice of law. Capt. W. H. Smith, who had been reelected City Sergeant, also qualified today, as did Mr. Leonard Marbury, reelected Commonwealth's Attorney, and Mr. John S. Beach, re-elected Clerk of SENT ON .- The case of John alias 'Piggy" Williams, colored, charged with criminally assaulting Maud Blackburn, a little ten-year-old colored girl on Saturday evening, was called up in the police court this morning. A war-rant was issued for Williams about a month ago on the same charge, the victim being Daisy Skelton, a feeble minded girl of thirteen years, but he had managed to clude the police until Saturday. That evening Wilson Black burn went ta the station house and en-tered complaint against Williams and told where he was in hiding. Officers catching of Ogle, of the Alexandrias, and the pitching of Wapie and the fieldfound him secreted under a pile of logs found him secreted under a pile of logs at his home on Gibbon street near Pitt, which he had fitted up as a place of refuge. He was hauled out and taken to the station house. This morning Drs. Snowden and Purvis who had made an examination of the girl, testified to her condition and that an assault had been committed. The little girl was put on the stand and told of the assault in a few words. The Mayor sent Williams on to the grand jury and complimented the officers who made the arrest on their quickness and efficiency, they having arrested Williams within half
